Fire Dept., Rotary Club Start Program

In a continuing attempt to save lives from fire, the president of the Antioch Rotary Club, Paul Pavelski, announces a joint Smoke Detector Program in conjunction with the Fire Prevention Bureau of the Antioch Fire Department.

This will kick off the Oct. 6 National Fire Prevention Week (Oct. 6-12). It also recognizes the Antioch Village Board and the trustees of the First Fire District for passing ordinances requiring the installation of smoke detectors in all apartments and homes.

"Because smoke detectors have been proven to save lives and diminish fire loss due to early detection," said Fire Chief Charles Maplethorpe, "I am extremely pleased that the Rotary Club has chosen to take on such an important community project."

Rotary President Pavelski said that the Rotary Club will provide, through the Antioch Fire Department, smoke detectors at a reduced price. Currently the Fire Prevention Bureau is able to buy battery-operated smoke detectors for $8.25, according to Captain Wayne Parthun. The Antioch Rotary Club will make these smoke detectors available for $5 each to anyone living in Antioch Township. Pavelski said the Rotary Club will pay the Antioch Fire Department the difference of $3.25.

Parthun, chief of the Fire Prevention Bureau, said that anyone interested in purchasing the smoke detectors may do so by coming to the Antioch Fire Station on Hobbeck Drive anytime Tuesday, Oct. 8 or Thursday, Oct. 10 between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. Department secretary, Mrs. Carney, will have the smoke detectors available starting Oct. 8. Purchasers are asked to be prepared to provide proof of residency and fill out a form with their name, address, phone number, and number of smoke detectors purchased.

The life saving program will be held from Tuesday, Oct. 8 through Thursday, Oct. 31 as a community project of the Antioch Rotary Club. Funds for the project are made available through the club's annual Pork Chop Barbeque and Auction.

If persons interested in obtaining a smoke detector are not able to come to the fire station during Tuesday or Thursday, 10 a.m.-2 p.m., they can call (312) 395-5511 and make special arrangements with Mrs. Carney.

Haley Faces Nov. 20 Sentencing Date

A Nov. 20 sentencing date has been set for Antioch businessman William Haley after he pleaded guilty Sept. 23 to a federal charge of conspiracy to import marijuana and Quaaludes into the country.

Haley, long suspected of being a major smuggler of narcotics into Lake County, faces up to 18 years in prison and $100,000 in fines.

Haley pleaded guilty for his part in smuggling more than a ton of marijuana and pills into Palm Beach County, Fla., from Puerto Rico in April 1981. McHenry resident James Amoroso was also arrested and charged.

According to Assistant U.S. Attorney Ira Raphaelson, the 1981 conviction was part of the basis of Haley's guilty plea on the conspiracy charge.

This conviction stems Haley's involvement in a series of drug smugglings. In September 1984, he was convicted and later sentenced to a 10-year prison term and fined $25,000 for his part in an international drug ring that brought drugs into Chicago.

Under his guilty plea, other charges still pending of the 10-count federal indictment will be dismissed.

A $250,000 bond has been set for Haley, who is awaiting sentencing at the Metropolitan Correctional Center in Chicago.

Name Father Eckholm Rector

Father Vincent Eckholm has been commuting to St. Ignatius Episcopal Church in Antioch from his northside of Chicago home for a year. But starting in November, he will move to Antioch and officially take over as rector.

Father Eckholm, 43, ordained to the priesthood in 1967, said he is ready for the change after his yearlong interim.

"I feel like I've seen them (the people) in every possible light after a full year," he said.

Father Eckholm is taking over the position of Father Theodore Bessette, who retired in the end of 1984.

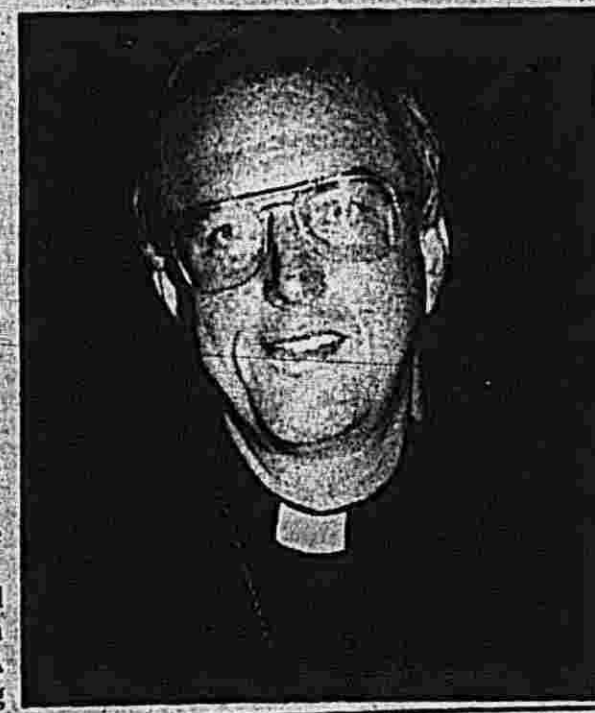

He has already implemented an outreach program and plans to start other programs. The program is: perhaps why church attendance has jumped 22 percent in the last year, he said.

A script study class is underway for the discussion of scripture passages. The purpose is to give a better understanding of the various selections and how they tie together.

A group is underway for those who need support in common difficult times in life—a death, divorce, vocational changes, etc. A youth group that would mix fun and learning is also underway.

Father Eckholm is leaving a five-year position as Chaplin at the Lawrence Hall School For Boys, in Chicago. Before that, he held parochial as well as other offices in dioceses in Chicago and Iowa.

Actor Ed Asner Shows Antioch Bar Stardom

by KAREN WILTBERGER

Actor Ed Asner wasn't supposed to be recognized when he exited through the doors of Old Hickory Restaurant and Tavern, Rtes. 45 and 173, Antioch.

But as Asner, portraying an affluent surgeon who hides out to darken his drinking problem, steps outside the small, rustic-looking bar, people await his autograph.

And, of course, the talk outside skips to the 55-year-old actor's one and only—city editor Lou Grant.

In an unscheduled interview between scenes, Asner said his seven-year role as Lou Grant was "a mixed bag all the way."

"I chose this role because, well... I like to work, and it doesn't happen as often as I would like," Asner said with a chuckle.

But seriously, Asner said, "I desired a role that had something to say; it deals with an alcoholic doctor in a very strong sense, and the covertness that accompanies the affliction, particularly in relation to doctors and the problem in that field."

Extras and the filming crew of the CBS "Movie of the Week" filled the Antioch tavern the morning of Sept. 25 getting ready to shoot scenes of the upcoming "Following the Footsteps."

Last month the film's location manager, Pat Lydon, landed the Antioch bar, owned by Antioch resident Charles Vrakas for five years.

"She just came in and asked if it would be all right to shoot a few scenes of a movie here," Vrakas said. "I said 'sure,'" he said as he walked around his tavern in its moment of stardom.

Vrakas' wife, Sharon, played bartender as the workers along with excited viewers filled the bar seats. "It think it's real exciting. It's probably the best good thing that's happened in Antioch in a long time," she said.

The tavern portrays a place where blue collar workers would stop after work and have a few beers. It saw stardom as Asner put down a few scotches inside and ate a candy bar outside.

In midpoint of a 20-day shooting, the stop in Antioch was one of four days that the crew spent in Lake County and southeastern Wisconsin. Earlier that morning, the crew filmed at the Pioneer Lodge on Channel Lake, where the affluent Hayward family has a cabin and the doctor and his son go fishing.

These scenes along with scenes in Winnetka and Chicago pose as the film's fictional locale of grosse Pointe, Mich.

Asner's (Matthew Hayward) son is played by Gary Cole, of Steppenwolf. Like his father, Cole (David Hayward) is a Tigers baseball fan, an ex-number 12 Michigan football player, a surgeon and an addict.

But instead of drinking Scotch, Cole (David Hayward) shoots up Meperidine and morphine and pops amphetamines.

Asner, who has played a number of roles—comic and serious—in his time, returned to Chicago that night, but not without a kind word about Lake County.

"It's a beautiful area," Asner said. "I would like to stay longer and watch the colors change."

And what's next for the actor, better-known as "Lou Grant?"

Asner said he is anxious to return to work and that's why he is giving up his four-year presidency of the Screen Actors Guild. "Four years is a long time in a non-paying, very difficult position."

"It's good for the guild and good for me to pursue my normal life," Asner said.

And what's normal right now for Asner?

Well, he won't be returning to his authoritative role as city editor. But he is working on another role—this time a lawyer—on a TV series pilot with Universal Studios "on a par with Lou Grant... perhaps more whimsical."

One last thing, Mr. Asner, how do you seem to always grab these authoritative roles?

"It must be my weight."

And the nice guy Asner let out yet another chuckle.

The use of HCG in a weight reduction program was originally researched and developed by Dr. A.T.W. Simeons of Rome, Italy over 30 years ago. Since Dr. Simeons' early work, HCG has been prescribed in Europe for weight reduction in both men and women. The program has been successfully used in the U.S. for the last 15 years.

Indications: HCG is not approved by FDA as safe and effective for weight control. There is no substantial evidence that it increases weight loss beyond that resulting from caloric restriction, that it causes a more attractive "normal" distribution of fat, or that it decreases the hunger and discomfort associated with caloric restricted diets.

Rain Dampens Rally

Weekend rain dampened Car Rally attendance but not enthusiasm as 420 classic, antique and special interest vehicles came to participate in Lake Geneva's 8th Annual Classic Car Rally, sponsored by the Corinne Kreissl Memorial Foundation.

Over $1,000 was raised in spite of the weather for American Cancer Society childhood research.

Americana Lake Geneva Resort in Lake Geneva, Wis. hosted the 8th annual event.

Prizes and awards were given inside the ski lodge by MC Betty Bartelson of Lake Geneva. Event chairman, Joe Kennedy of Fontana, prize chairperson Judy Strokes of Lake Geneva and originators George and Janice Kreissl of Austin, Texas formerly of Grayslake assisted in the presentations.

First prize winners, a tie between David Williams of Williams Bay, Wis. and Dennis Allen of Wheaton was decided according to Hoyle by cutting the cards. Williams won the draw and chose the oil painting of his car by awarding winning artist Paul Brisko of Racine. Allen was awarded a complete weekend package for two at the Americana Lake Geneva Resort. Third prize winner was Mike Sterrick of Elgin, who won a blue topaz donated by China West of Lake Geneva.

First five place winners also received trophies donated by First Bank Southeast of Lake Geneva. Over 100 prizes from participating stops around the lake and local businesses were also given for special interest, consolation and door prizes. Dash plaques were presented to all cars registered.

Plans for the 9th Annual Rally in September of 1986 were started immediately.

CLC Board Race Heats Up

On Sept. 18, four candidates and one stand-in for another aspirant were interviewed by the Executive Committee of CLC Teachers Union. The five nominees are competing for three positions on the CLC Board of Trustees in the Nov. 5 elections.

They include incumbents F. James Lumber of Round Lake and Richard Anderson of Grayslake. Lumber is the dean of CLC Trustees. He has served for 17 years on the board. Anderson has been a trustee for the past 11 years. Currently, he is chairman of the CLC Board.

Two political newcomers are also running in the CLC election: Melody Brown of Round Lake Beach and Dorothy Harnish of Grayslake.

Brown graduated from CLC last spring, and is presently enrolled at Lake Forest College. She was an active member of the CLC student government.

Harnish's husband, Frank, has been a longtime speech and drama teacher at CLC. Mrs. Harnish is the first wife of a faculty member to seek a position on the CLC Board of Trustees.

The fifth aspirant is one of the most visible and experienced public officials in the history of Lake County politics. Ron Coles of Lake Villa was chairman of the Lake County Board from 1971-1974. He also served as Lake Villa Twp. Supervisor from 1965-1977.

Currently, he manages Protection Unlimited, a mosquito abatement firm. Coles has been a parttime student at CLC for the last five years.

Four of the candidates sought the faculty union's endorsement in the CLC election. Ron Coles had out-of-town commitments and was unable to attend the interview session. But his personal representative informed the teachers' executive board that he was not seeking the union's endorsement.

Coles wants to field an independent candidacy. He doesn't want to be beholden to any group. However, Coles would welcome support from individual faculty members. The other aspirants discussed their qualifications and philosophies with the teachers group.

On Sept. 23, Union President Bob Dawson announced that the teachers' executive board had endorsed the election of F. James Lumber, Richard Anderson and Dorothy Harnish for the CLC Board of Trustees.

Only eight out of the 14 members of the executive board participated in the formal endorsement session. Dawson reported that it was a unanimous vote to support the Lumber, Anderson and Harnish candidacies on Nov. 5.

The three winners will be elected to six-year terms on the college board.

Hospital Takes Part In Respect Life Week

St. Therese Hospital will be one of more than 900 Catholic healthcare facilities nationwide taking part in Respect Life Week, Oct. 6-12.

The 14th annual observance is sponsored by the National Conference of Catholic Bishops (NCCB) and is observed by Catholic Parishes, schools, and other church ministries.

Participation by Catholic healthcare facilities is encouraged by the Catholic Health Assn. of the United States (CHA).

"Respect Life programming emphasizes the value of human life in all forms, at all stages," says Sister Xavier, S.Sp.S., a hospital vice president and chairperson St. Therese's special activities for the Respect Life Week. "In Catholic healthcare, we show our reverence for life, God's gift, in everything we do every day," she said.

Special activities at St. Therese Hospital during Respect Life Week include a mass in the chapel, Oct. 6, at 7:30 a.m.; tours of Skilled Nursing Unit at 2 p.m., Oct. 8 and 9; special displays by Social Work, Day Care Center, Skilled Nursing Unit and Sta-Alert Communications System; and special video "The Little Ways That Mean The Most," showing for both employees and patients.

During the week donations of food goods will be collected for distribution to three local soup kitchens.

Berquist To Perform

John Berquist, northern Minnesota folklorist and musician, will perform in two shows, at 7:30 and 9:30 p.m., on Friday, Oct. 4, at the David Adler Cultural Center.

His instruments include guitar, mandolin, autoharp, banjo, button accordion and harmonica, and his music and stories reflect the heritage of the many immigrant groups that settled the upper Midwest.

Opening both shows will be Amy Beth and Odette Musiel, a duo from Woodstock, who play and sing traditional and contemporary folk music. They accompany themselves on guitar, mountain dulcimer, fiddle and bowed psaltery.

Admission is $4.50 for adults, $4 for members, $2 for senior citizens and children 6-12, and free for children under 6.

The David Adler Cultural Center, 1700 N. Milwaukee Ave., Libertyville, is a non-profit organization.

For information, call (312) 367-0707.

Condell To Hold PMS Seminar

Condell Memorial Hospital, a subsidiary of The Medical Center of Lake County, will present a special program focusing on the subject, Premenstrual Syndrome (PMS), its effect on women and its treatment.

at 6:30 p.m. on Friday, Oct. 25 in the hospital's dining room.

Under the title, "Strictly for Her," the PMS program is the first in a series of programs or screenings planned to meet the health needs of women as defined during a comprehensive study conducted during 1985.

Some ten percent of these women suffer PMS symptoms severe enough to disrupt their personal and professional lives.

While Condell's program is designed to be of value to women who specifically have menstrual cycles, families or friends who want to learn more about this disorder, are invited to participate in the evening's activities. A $3 fee per person ($6 per couple) is being charged.

To register for the lecture and buffet supper, call (312) 362-2900, ext. 5275.

Seek Volunteers

The American Red Cross is looking for people interested in volunteering at the Naval Hospital, Great Lakes. The volunteers will be assisting the hospital staff by doing such tasks as weighing patients and taking temperatures and blood pressure readings.

There will be an orientation and training session at the hospital for all the volunteers. The training will be taught by naval medical staff.

For more information on this volunteer opportunity, call Hope Forcier at the Red Cross Service Center on the base at (312) 688-5676.

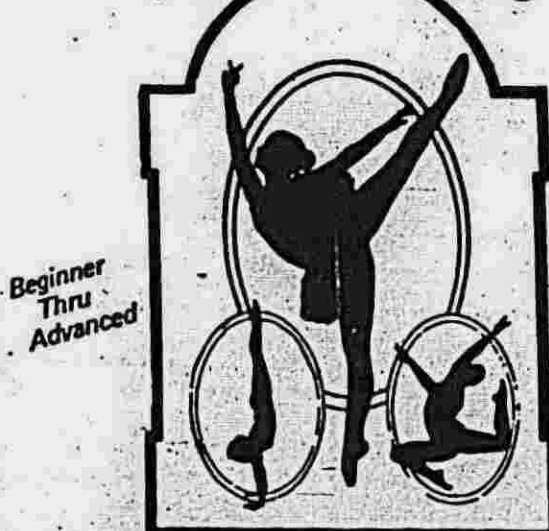

The Red Cross is a United Way agency.

Pet Of The Week

Randi Grossman, of Grayslake, is one among the many dog masters who spoil their dogs. Jessie (left) is a mild-mannered Doberman. Randi found her other dog, Sammy, after she was hit by a car and nursed the dog back to health. Sammy is strong and full of pep, weighing twice as much now as she did when she was found.

Ev's Birthday Certain To Be Big Day For All

Everette Hook, Lake County's oldest active businessman, is going to observe his 90th birthday Friday, Oct. 4, just like any other day—at the store. There will be a difference, however. When Ev opens the door at Hook's Lumber Co., 31 S.

Seymour Ave., Grayslake, like he does every business day of the year, he'll trigger a day-long open house and birthday party arranged as a surprise by his family. Hook's children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren decided the lumber company would be the most appropriate way to celebrate the birthday of a man who has dedicated his life to his family, his business and his community. They even took out a big advertisement in the Lakeland Newspapers proclaiming, "Happy 90th Birthday, Everette W. Hook."

Featured in the ad is one-year-old Everette, complete with shiny high button shoes, lacy collar and cuffs and the sharp-eyed "I don't miss a thing" expression that has been his trademark through life.

Hook has been a resident of Grayslake all his life, leaving only during World War I for service in France where he fought all the major battles with the famed 33rd Infantry Division.

As a Doughboy, Everette was wounded and survived a German gas attack which left him with the only ailment he has known down through the years, a skittish stomach.

After a brief test as a commuter to Chicago, and employment as a rug salesman at Marshall Field & Co., the powerfully built ex-soldier returned to his hometown to go to work at the local lumber yard.

About the same time, Everette gave up aspirations to become a lawyer and he pursued the hand of a vibrant and musically talented young lady from Ingleside, Kathryn, who became his bride and partner for life.

Junior High Elects New Class Officers

by ARDEEN HARRIS
(312) 395-2761

The Grass Lake Junior High has selected their officers for the 1985-86 school year. Congratulations to the following: eighth-grade president, Joe Rohde; vice president, Brian Fehrenbacher; secretary, Michele Skrypt; and treasurer, Tracy Podock; seventh-grade president, Tiffany Christopoulos; vice president, Shelley Brausam; secretary, Korrine Madden; and treasurer, Nicole Gannon; sixth-grade president, Amy Hansen; vice president, Ed Lehner; secretary, Dawn Gardin; and treasurer, Michael Quast.

Good luck to everyone in your new office.

Now, on to something completely different. If you are planning a trip to Las Vegas in the near future, I would like to recommend a new restaurant. It's in the Marina Hotel. Don't let the outside of the hotel fool you. It's not as flashy as the Flamingo or Circus Circus, but it does contain a very special restaurant called the Captain's Table. Seating is limited to 30 people, so the room is very cozy.

There is no menu. Instead, the waiter brings a tray of fresh meat, lamb chops, steaks and lobster tail (over a pound) to your table and you make your selection. A tray of appetizers is brought to your table on a bed of ice—not your ordinary radishes and celery, but exotic fruits and vegetables. Soup is a choice of baked onion, cream of shrimp and cold avocado.

The unofficial enrollment figures are in for Grass Lake School and are as follows: kindergarten, 31; first grade, 23; second grade, 25; third grade, 29; fourth grade, 30; fifth grade, 22; sixth grade, 32; seventh grade, 20; eighth grade, 40; and SEDOL, 10; for a total of 262 students.

The children attending school in Illinois will have another holiday added to their vacation schedule. Casimir Pulaski Day will be celebrated on Monday, March 3. Please mark your calendars for that day, and remember to add an additional day to the end of the school year as students are still required to have the specific number of school days in attendance.

According to a reliable source, the Grass Lake Haunted House is underway. More help is still needed and if you are interested in being a monster this year, give Pat or Chris Priller a call and let them know you are willing to help. What a great way to start the new PTO year—with lots of calls from you folks willing to donate some time. If you want to have fun and help a worthy organization, the Haunted House is the place to start. You don't need to have a child attending Grass Lake School in few of the activities being offered for the first quarter: typing, weight lifting, tennis, "This Living Planet" (science survey), sewing, theatre arts, drawing, newspaper, computer, video camera, American musical comedies, weaving/mac-

Remember last weekend with the cold, wet rain? Well, Pack 80 and troop 80 were at a campout at Camp Crown. Pack 80 would like to extend a thank you to Troop 80 for the invitation to attend their "Court of Honor." Joe Marsala, Wiebel leader worked with his Wiebels, Pete Schnieder, Joey Splitt and Jason Paulus to earn their outdoor badge. Danny Fiochi also assisted. Bobcat awards were earned on this campout by: James Mazucca, Josh Wolf, Adam Marsella, Brad Priller and Jeff Flesham. The other brave campers who helped the boys and spent the night were: Jack Mazucca, Pete Marsella, Pat Priller, John Joanne, and Matt Flesham, Cindy, Al, Jenny, Matt, Nicky and Gizmo Van-drush. Visitors to the campsite were: Sandy and Bill Splitt and Chris Marsala. Bobcat badges were also earned by the following boys: Justin Ward, Alex Grob and Chris Dogan. Congratulations to you all! Remember to call with your news!

There will be a Candidates Night for those people who are seeking the five school board positions on the Grass Lake School Dist. 36 Board. # Papers Honored For Top Opinion, Family Pages Club Sets Executive Night Meeting Set For Oct. 8

Lakeland Newspapers captured two first places in the 1985 Illinois Press Assn. newspaper contest.

The Lakeland group was judged first in its circulation classification in family/home sections and editorial pages.

Judges also recognized Lakeland Newspapers for excellence in spot news photography, sports coverage, advertising originality and appearance of classified pages.

Awards were presented at a luncheon at the Holiday Inn in Decatur.

Lakeland was represented at the three-day conference by William H. Schroeder, publisher; Harry Kirchhardt, president, and William M. Schroeder, marketing manager. About the editorial pages, the judges had this to say:

"The class of the entries. The tabloid pages were clean; and a lot of opinion was packed into a small space. Entries had succinct, well written editorials, and a newsy editor's column. A good model for what a newspaper's editorial page can be."

Judges commented the following about Lakeland's home/family entry:

"The section was alone in its category for reporting, interesting general-interest lifestyle stories. The section offered a strong package, a columnist, useful health briefs and pet coverage. A clear winner."

An interesting Grayslake Womans Club meeting will be held Wednesday, Oct. 9 at noon with luncheon being served at the Park Dist. Building, 42 S. Seymour. Members do remember, the Art Display for this meeting is "Flower Arrangements" by the membership.

A business meeting will follow lunch and an unusual program to be given by Evelyn Holmes talking on Gardens of an Edwardian Lady. Mrs. Holmes comes to us from the Waukegan Historical Society.

If you are interested in joining us or becoming a member of our group call (312) 223-0630. We need you!

The Greater Lakes Chapter of Professional Secretaries International will hold its annual Executive Night on Tuesday, Oct. 8, at 6 p.m., at Gatsby's of Renwood, 1413 Hainesville Rd. in Round Lake.

For this annual event, members of the chapter can nominate their boss for the "Boss of the Year" (BOTY) award. Last year's recipient, Dr. Robert Sherman of Round Lake Area Schools, will be presenting the traveling plaque to this year's winner.

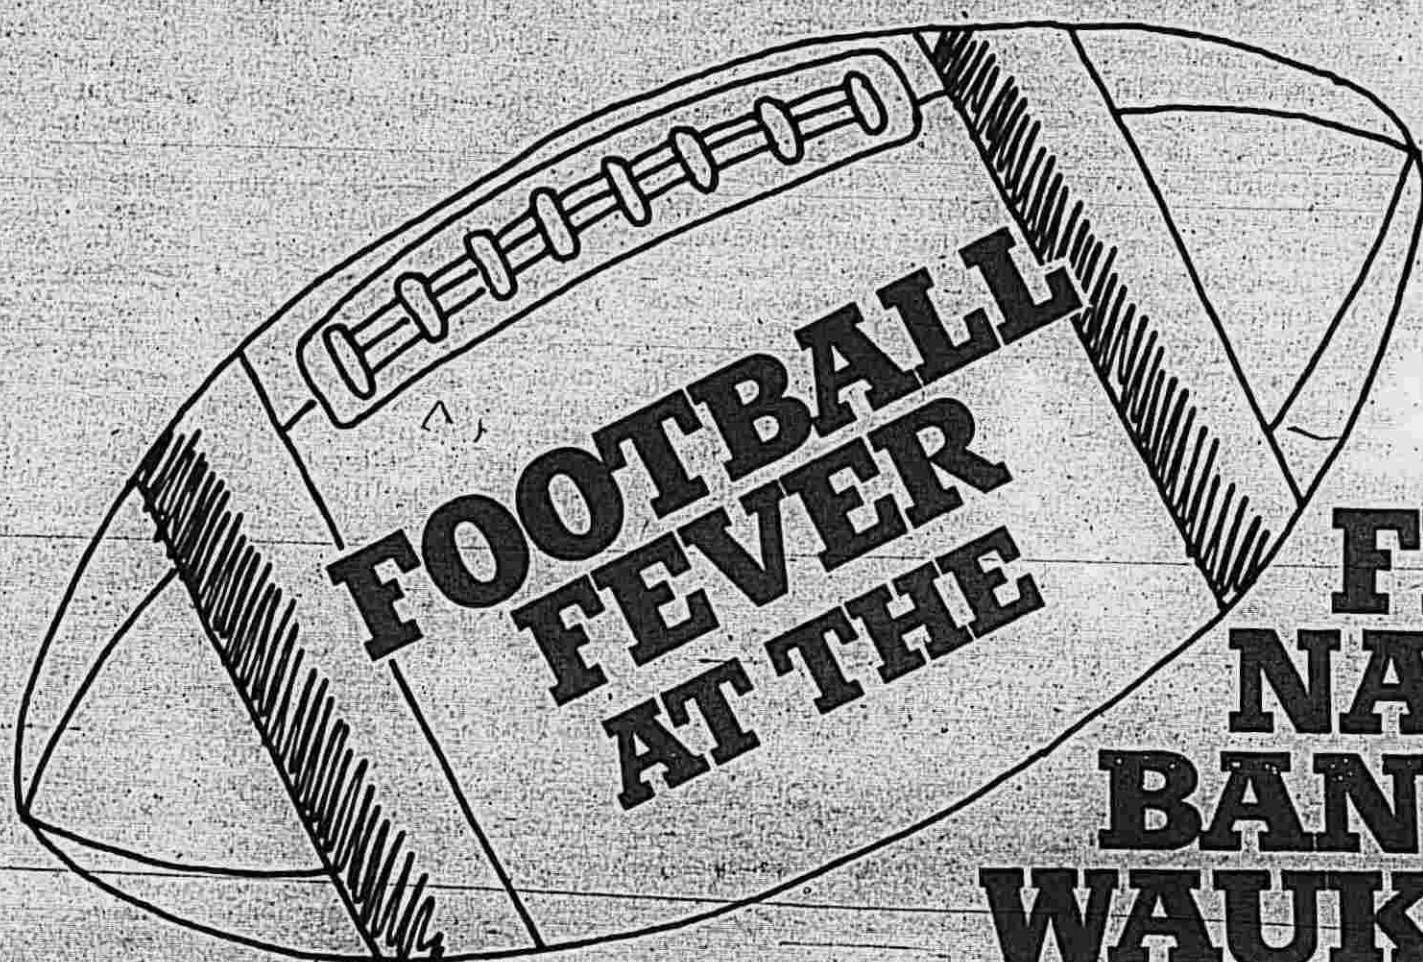

A program of song and dance will be presented by

Vikings Win 38-0 For 4th Shut Out

Antioch Viking lightweights took their fourth straight shutout by beating Winnetka 38-0.

The Vikings led by their "Ground Hog" defense completely dominated the line of scrimmage and turned the ball over to their offense with three interceptions, two by Jered Duda—one for a touchdown and one by Nick Popowski. He returned 25 yards to the Winnetka 12-yard line, which was turned into a touchdown and a four-yard run by Glenn Graham.

The defense was led in tackles by Brad Behling who was all over the field with seven solo tackles, four assisted tackles and two blocked punts. Also deserving special mention were tackles Dale Morgan, Frank Hannigan and defensive end Fred Alexander.

With the usual strong running game was having a off day, Antioch took to the air with Todd Kupsall hooking up with tight end Pat Cote on touchdown strikes of 25 and 35 yards.

The balance of the scoring came on a 12-yard run by Keith Horn and a six-yard run by Brian Hanrahan.

Antioch will travel to Highland Park for a game Wednesday night.

Antioch Viking lightweights won their third straight shutout over Mundelein.

The Vikings broke a close ballgame open in the last two minutes of the first half when quarter back Todd Kupsak completed a pass to Pat Cote at the Mundelein two-yard line with Glenn Graham taking the ball over from the two-yard line.

The second half started off with Greg Loecher returning it 72 yards for a touchdown.

The leading rushers for the Vikings were Greg Graham 11-92 and Greg Loecher with nine for 64 yards and two touchdowns.

Mexico Earthquake Relief Fund Needs Donations

The State Bank of Antioch has joined the American Red Cross campaign to raise funds for victims of the Mexico City earthquake.

An American Red Cross account for the "Mexico Earthquake Relief" fund, opened with the bank's donation check, is now available to anyone wishing to contribute to the needs of injured victims and homeless families.

"The Red Cross is very willing and able to work with us on this worthwhile effort," said bank president, Randy Miles. "They are acting as a conduit for all donations to get to Mexico."

According to Woody Boydell, district field representative for the Red Cross Mid-America Chapter in Mundelein, there is real urgency for financial assistance in the wake of this tragedy.

"The latest word we have," said Boydell, "is that our donation dollars are being used to construct and equip, from the ground up, emergency service centers to take care of immediate medical, physical and psychological needs in areas where hospitals have completely collapsed or existing facilities are hopelessly overcrowded."

Amputees are of particular concern.

Checks, or money orders made payable to the "American Red Cross" and earmarked for Mexico Earthquake Relief may be given in person or mailed to Florence Babusek, Marketing, State Bank of Antioch, 440 Lake St., Antioch, Ill. 60002.

In March 1978, he was promoted to commercial loan officer, acting in that capacity until January 1982.

Ban Plan Getting Hot

As college campus controversies go, the question of curtailing smoking in the buildings of the College of Lake County is getting more than a little heated. You might say that where there's smoke there's fire.

A nifty coalition has been formed between anti-smoking students and anti-smoking faculty members. And their militancy has the administration doing a slow burn over what to do with this hot issue. As it stands now, an opinion survey of the student body is being taken to sound out opinions on the issue. This is an example of foot dragging, some of the ban plan advocates insist.

As a denizen of smoke-filled newsrooms for years, we can sympathize with faculty members who are asserting that they have more at stake than the students. "After all, they're only here for a year or two," one smoke fighting professor declared.

We've never approved of high school officials providing smoking rooms for the children entrusted to their care. As far as CLC is concerned, there is plenty of room on the grounds and parking lots for tobacco users. The thought has been expressed that a major reason why the CLC administration is reluctant to curtail smoking is that it would hurt enrollment. That's silly. It could very well aid enrollment.

The survey results should be most revealing.

District Facing Questions

The unceremonious replacement of Atty. Joseph Sikes as counsel for the Round Lake Sanitary District, a post he held continuously for 38 years, has raised a few eyebrows.

Whether Sikes was fired or merely shunted aside in favor of a younger attorney isn't the only question that should be asked about the unit of government whose operating function was taken over by the Lake County Public Works Dept. several years ago when the Northwest Sewer System began functioning.

Other questions that come quickly to mind are why is the district still in business? What function does it serve?

The district does not levy taxes and it has no debts, but it does have approximately $500,000 in its kitty, the residual from final bond and interest payments on debts incurred to build and operate a sewage treatment works when the district was a free standing entity.

The district is governed by a three-man board appointed by the Lake County Board. The trustees hire professional services, including an attorney and a manager, Al Valentin. Besides Sikes, for some time the district also has utilized the services of an outside attorney, Rudy Magan, Jr. Magan was brought in to litigate a controversy with the Village of Fox Lake over disclosure of rates being charged Round Lake area citizens.

Apparently trustees were pleased with Magna's services because he has been paid fees of about $50,000. The legal action pressed by Magna reportedly resulted in a saving to taxpayers of an estimated $250,000. Sikes has indicated that he will not challenge his dismissal which leads to wonderment whether Magna will be installed as permanent legal counsel. The trustees don't seem to know.

The speculation could be written off as gossip were it not for the fact that Valentin is a business partner of the attorney's father, Rudy Magna, Sr., in an underground contracting firm. Magna, Sr., also is mayor of the Village of Round Lake and a former trustee of the sanitary district who exerted no little political influence to shape trustee appointments to his own liking.

Facts rule against acceptance of a likely argument that it was time for Sikes to retire—facts like the existence of a tidy treasury, no apparent purpose for the district to remain as a functioning body and the "all in the family" way of doing business. Officials of the district are leaving themselves wide open to criticism. They shouldn't be surprised when the questions come at them in droves.

Letter To The Editor

Community Divided

Editor:

On December 20 there was a fire at Warren Twp. High School. This tragic occurrence did more than destroy a building. It and the events to follow divided a community. No longer is Warren/Gurnee renowned for its high scholastic standards and award winning bands. Now, Gurnee is famous for its litigations, feuding citizens, and unfounded accusations of school mismanagement. This has got to stop!

Good can come out of the Warren fire. It has already ignited new interest in WTHS. As our school board election draws near, many claim that they are anxious to devote the next four years to the school board in the best interest of the community. With such a wide choice of candidates, please consider the following.

A school board member should understand the long-range effect of his/her actions and not be short-sighted. It was well documented that our high school needed expansion prior to the fire.

Professionalism should be key in a candidate's qualifications. We need representatives who will conduct themselves in a business-like, rational, productive manner.

The issue today is not your children's education. It is yours! The community at large is deeply concerned that your school board vote be a well informed one. Too many "facts" have been incorrect or conveniently worded in the past.

Friends of Warren
Judy Rockwell, Chairman
John Miller, Vice-Chairman

Cutback A Failure—Quinn Bilks Voters

by JOHN STEINKE

This summer Bill Murphy, Lake County's legendary state legislator for 18 years, reminded me: "When a politician tells you that he is an honest man, put both hands on your wallet." Murphy must have been thinking of Patrick Quinn and his Coalition for Political Honesty.

The 1870 Illinois Constitution created the unique cumulative voting system for electing the members of the State House of Representatives. Under this system, Illinois' 59 legislative districts each elected three House members, with no more than two coming from the same political party. The 177 members of the Illinois House were elected for two-year terms.

Cumulative voting guaranteed political diversity in the Illinois House. It assured strong minority representation in the General Assembly from all parts of the state. It diminished the post-Civil War polarization between Chicago-area Republicans and Downstate Democrats by providing them with some representation in the state legislature.

But, alas, Illinois voters were persuaded by Quinn and his Coalition to adopt the cutback amendment in the 1980 election. Under this amendment, the size of the Illinois House was cut by 59 members. Multimember districts were abolished in favor of 118 single-member districts.

Quinn promised that the cutback amendment would increase election competition for the state legislature. The Republicans held an 89-88 majority in the Illinois House before the voters reduced the House size by a third.

Three years ago, state legislative redistricting was required by the 1980 census. The voter-mandated reduction in the size of the Illinois House produced the first elections from single-member districts. At that time, the Federal court approved the Democratic redistricting plan, which of course drew the legislative boundaries to favor the Democrats. In 1982, the Democrats, with gerrymandered district boundaries and a Republican Administration recession, achieved a 70-48 legislative majority.

Last year, despite Reagan's Illinois victory, the Democrats retained a substantial 67-51 margin in the State House. The GOP ousted only four Democratic incumbents while losing an open seat in southern Illinois to the Democrats. No incumbent Republican lawmakers were defeated for reelection in 1984.

There are three categories of state legislative contests: the strictly one-party districts, the predominantly one-party districts, and, finally, the marginal districts. The strictly one-party districts are those districts where one or the other of our major parties has no or little opposition in the legislative elections. The winning candidates are unopposed or capture in excess of 60 percent of two-party vote.

In the predominantly one-party districts, the victorious candidates receive 55-59.9 percent of the two-party vote. Their opponents' chances are slim-to-none in the election. The marginal districts are where election hassles are so closely-contested that they are actually decided by the shade of a shadow. Genuine competition exists in the marginal districts where the winners garner 50-54.9 percent of the two-party vote.

In the 1982 and 1984 elections for the Illinois General Assembly, 70 out of 236 races were uncontested. In another 112 contests, the winners secured 60 percent or better of the two party vote. Thus, 182 out of 236 state House elections were noncompetitive. Over three-fourths of the state legislative races failed to generate any genuine political competition.

Another 33 legislative battles were classified as predominantly one-party districts where the winning candidates received 55-59.9 percent of the two-party vote. Only 29 out of 236 state House races produced legitimate competition between the two parties in the last two elections. In these 29 marginal districts, the winners captured only 50-54.9 percent of the vote. Only 12.3 percent of the state House elections stimulated serious competition between the two major parties.

Besides the House Democrats, Quinn was the other winner of the referendum to reduce the size of the Illinois State House and to establish single-member districts. Quinn achieved statewide name recognition by sponsoring the cutback amendment. He established himself as a reformer by organizing the Coalition for Political Honesty. Now his hidden agenda has been revealed. Quinn wants to be slated for statewide office on the 1986 Illinois Democratic ticket.

Why are Illinois voters such patsies, when they hear the siren call of phoney reformers? My 13 readers understand this fundamental principle: Illinois ain't ready for reform. (Second of a series.)

Editor's Viewpoint Country Drive Offers Heralded Beauty Of Fall

by BILL SCHROEDER

This is the time of year Lakelanders earn dividends on their willingness to endure sub-zero degrees in January, sultry July days when the humidity is higher than the temperature and the dreary dampness of March and April.

It's fall, glorious fall, the best time of the year in these parts, as far as the commentator is concerned.

What other time of the year can you bask shirt-sleeved in the sun during the day and pull up the covers at night to enjoy the slumber of a king? Only fall. That's when our climate rivals Waikiki Beach or the Bahamas.

Lakeland is blessed with scores of byways that make a weekend drive an unforgettable delight - sunlight shimmering on the lakes and ponds, while vari-colored leaves rustle in the breeze as the stunning beauty of October is unveiled.

You'll know what we're talking about if you head south on Fairfield Rd. from Rte. 134 or follow Gilmer Rd. from Rte. 83 south of Mundelein to Volo. Let the rolling countryside unfold on either side of Wadsworth Rd., Casey Rd. or Kelly Rd. Follow Hunt Club Rd. north from Belvidere Rd. or slant south from Rte. 120 down Darrell Rd.

What's your favorite fall drive through Lakeland? Let us know and we'll share your secret. Our fall beauty is more enjoyable when you share the feast of eyes and ears.

ON THE JOB—Three commissioners of the Lake County Forest Preserve District reported that they weren't shirking their duty as this column wrote several weeks ago in commenting on their absence when the important vote was taken on acquisition of Brae Loch Country Club.

Commissioners Robert Depke, Jim Fields and Bob Neal were attending a meeting of township officials in Aurora in their capacity as township supervisors. They chastized this writer for accusing them of ducking the controversial county club purchase question.

Depke, Fields and Neal, all opponents of Brae Loch, stated that they had made reservations for the Aurora meeting six months in advance and were already committed when the Brae Loch purchase question was called at a special meeting one week in advance of the district's regular monthly meeting Sept. 20.

State Clerk President Endorses Venita's Bid

Wauconda Village Clerk Venita McConnell's campaign for the 1986 Republican nomination for Lake County Clerk has gained a significant endorsement for her candidacy. Colleen Kasting, the president of the Municipal Clerks of Illinois and Mundelein Village Clerk, has expressed strong support for McConnell's election.

In an exclusive statement to Lakeland Newspapers, Kasting commented, "What should a candidate for public office offer to the voters? Interest in good government? YES. Willingness to serve the public sector? YES. Ability to work with people? YES. Experience related to the position? YES."

Kasting continued, "Over the past years, Venita McConnell has been active in seeking out and working for qualified candidates for office at both the local and county level. This shows her interest in good government. Venita has shown her willingness to serve the public by seeking and being elected to public office at the local level. Venita has served as Wauconda Village Clerk for the past eight years. This position requires the talent to work with people and ably demonstrates her ability in this area."

Kasting concluded, "Venita McConnell brings years of executive experience in the business world to her candidacy for the office of Lake County Clerk along with the eight years of governmental experience. While looking at these few elementary questions and the obvious answers, Venita McConnell, Republican candidate for the position of Lake County Clerk in the coming primary, qualifies for and receives my endorsement as the finest candidate for this office.

"As past president of the Municipal Clerks of Lake County and president of the Municipal Clerks of Illinois, I have known Venita through professional associations for eight years. As I endorse her candidacy, I know that Venita is the YES candidate and not a 'yes' person. I have found her resourceful, an original thinker, well-organized and a completely dedicated public servant."

Working On Crafts

St. Gilbert's Plans Victorian Boutique

The Ninth Annual Victorian House Boutique sponsored by the Mothers & Others Club of St. Gilbert's parish in Grayslake will be held from 6-9 p.m. on Friday, Oct. 25 and Saturday, Oct. 26 at the Parish Hall on Rte. 120, Grayslake.

The St. Gilbert's Holiday bazaar is fast becoming a legend in Lake County circles for its quality of the handmade items such as quilts, wreaths and stuffed toys and candlewick geese.

These handcrafted gifts are comparable to any articles that can be found at the best stores at lower prices.

The Mothers & Others club is a unique group of women of all ages and stages of life who meet to pool talents and resources for the good of the parish.

The women donate time, talent and materials to put together this once a year event without seeking profit from the work.

Plan Ball

Autumn signals the coming of The Lambs' Annual Harvest Ball, Saturday, Oct. 5, at the Skokie Country Club in Glencoe.

The evening is sponsored by The Lambs' Women's Board and all proceeds will benefit The Lambs, Inc., a private, not-for-profit organization offering vocational, residential and social services to mentally retarded adults.

The black tie optional dinner and dance fundraiser will begin with cocktails at 6:30 p.m., followed by a Chateaubriand dinner and dancing to music by The Rhythm Club.

Official Newspaper

Your local Lakeland Newspaper is the official newspaper of this community, authorized by statute to publish legal notices required by law.

On both dates, Friday and Saturday, Sept. 25 and 26 one can walk into the 20th century church hall and find a world straight from yesteryear. Visitors will find themselves in a Victorian home with two levels and an attic which will feature dress forms, old trunks and family heirlooms as props.

Among the props will be the craft items of grapevine wreaths, needlework, Raffin dolls, calico turkeys and pumpkins, stuffed teddy bears and handmade afghans.

Moving into the parlor one will find the house gleaming for the holidays with ornaments on display and stockings hung on the mantle waiting for Santa.

There will be tree skirts meticulously crafted by hand. Also available will be Christmas table centerpieces, corn husk wreaths and an array of handmade ornaments with a teddy bear theme.

What is a house without a pantry? One can almost smell the cookies baking and the cocon bubbling on the black iron cook stove upon entering the pantry.

There will be a full array of homemade foods from nut breads to fruit cakes, canned pickles, relishes, preserves and homemade apple pie.

In addition to food items, the pantry will also feature practical gadgets for kitchen use such as aprons, magnets, decorated floral plaques, egg baskets, wall hangings and pot holders.

Next there will be a nursery where a Victorian cradle and rocker will be the feature. Available for purchasing will be stuffed toys, baby quilts, bibs, handmade cabbage patch clothes and knitted children's clothing.

A tea room will be available for everyone to take a rest and enjoy a homemade snack or a full course luncheon, all at reasonable prices. As well as fresh coffee and tea, Italian cookies will be baked throughout the day.

For anyone who enjoys foliage and blooms, don't forget to stop by the greenhouse and pick up some beautiful live plants to brighten a home during the winter months.

A give away will also be held. First prize will be $500 in cash, second prize will be a hand made Queen size patchwork quilt and third prize will be a handcrafted Christmas wreath. Tickets will be 50 cents each or five for $2.

Mark the calendars and remember to stop by the Parish Hall on Friday and Saturday, Oct. 25 and 26.

Lakeland Schools Announce Food Policy

Lakeland readership schools have announced their policy for free or reduced price meals for children unable to pay full price of meals served under the National School Lunch Programs.

Children from households whose income is at or below the levels shown are eligible for free or reduced price meals.

Application forms will be available at the time of registration. To apply for free or reduced price meals, households should fill out the application and return it to the school where their children are enrolled. Additional copies are available at the principal's office in each school.

An application, which does not contain all of the following information, cannot be processed by the school: 1) the total household income and the source of income received by each household member (such as wages, child support, etc.) or the household's food stamp case number if your household is on food stamps, 2) names of all household members, 3) social security numbers of all household members 21 years of age or older or the word "none" for any adult household member who does not have a social security number, and 4) the signature of an adult household member. "Household" is defined as a group of related or non-related individuals, who are not residents of an institution or boarding house, who are living together as one economic unit.

The information provided by the household is confidential and will be used only for the purpose of determining eligibility and verifying data. Applications may be verified by the school or other officials at any time during the school year.

If the child is approved for free or reduced price meal benefits, the household must report to the school increases in household income over $50 per month ($600 per year) or when the household size decreases.

Households may apply for benefits at any time during the school year. If a household is not currently eligible but has a decrease in household income, an increase in household size or if a household member becomes unemployed, the household should fill out an application at that time.

In certain cases foster children are eligible for these benefits regardless of the household's income. If a household has foster children living with them and wishes to apply for free or reduced price meals, they should contact the school for more information.

Under the provisions of the policy, the Director of Business Affairs will review applications and determine eligibility. Parents or guardians dissatisfied with the ruling of the official may wish to discuss the decision with the determining official on an informal basis.

The household also has the right to a fair hearing. This can be done by calling or writing the following official: the Superintendent, 316 South Rosedale Court, Round Lake; phone, (312) 546-5522.

Each school and the office of the superintendent has a copy of the complete policy which may be reviewed by any interested party.

In the operation of the child feeding programs, no child will be discriminated against on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, sex, or handicap. If any member of a household believes they have been discriminated against, they should write immediately to the Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250.

The following household size and income criteria will be used for determining eligibility:

It's Showdown In Round Lake Oct. 4

by KAREN WILTBERGER

There is a happening going on at Round Lake High School: The food tastes better in the cafeteria, the football team is tied for the conference lead and everyone is looking forward to the "big" game against Marian Central (who will be trying to extend their 18-game conference win streak).

"It's showdown in Round

"Who are those guys?" Round Lake opponents must be wondering. Here is a team that wasn't even mentioned in the pre-season picks sharing the top spot in the conference with Marian Central after shutting out the Johnsburg Skyhawks 24-0.

An aggressive, hard-hitting Panther defense set the tone of the game early on a blocked punt by Troy Haines only to see the offense fall short. Defensive back Bob Porteous then intercepted a Skyhawk pass and rammed 15 yards to score. Dave Kaempf added the extra point to give Round Lake a 7-0 halftime lead.

Again the defense took over in the second half shutting the Skyhawks down. Kaempf's 32-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter gave the Panthers a 10-0 lead.

Haines' 1-yard touchdown run and Jim DeLeon's 24-yard touchdown run along with Kaempf's two extra points finished the scoring for the Panthers.

"Poppy" Hernandez (seven solo tackles and two assists), Mike Fox (eight tackles and 11 assists), Pat Bruening (five tackles and six assists) along with outside linebackers Jim Riddlen and Art Bragg led a fired-up Panther defense.

"Outstanding on an awakening Panther offense were linemen Curtis Boykin, "Tito" Hernandez, Gary Jeffery (who Dunn called the best in the conference), Mike Obrachta and Troy Haines with 88 yards in 17 carries.

For the third week in a row Round Lake swept at all levels with the sophomores winning 14-0 and the freshmen crushing Johnsburg 41-6.

"It's showdown at the OK Corral. Here we come," said an exuberant Dunn.

Bulldogs Up For Big Game

The Grant Bulldogs will be looking for their first conference win against the Johnsburg Skyhawks (1-2) Homecoming Saturday at Grant.

Garry Glauser will start his second game as quarterback, replacing Marc Borton (who broke his ankle before the Lake Zurich game), with head coach Mike Rogowski searching for better offensive line play from his Bulldogs.

Phil Winfrey (shoulder injury) and Dan Robinson (knee injury) will also miss the Bulldogs' homecoming game.

Trying to re-group after a 33-0 loss to Lake Zurich will be Rogowski's top priority during this week's homecoming practice for Saturday's game against arch-rival Johnsburg.

Grant's freshman team took Lake Zurich 28-7 while the sophomores were on the short end of a 22-0 score.

Wauconda Defeats Grayslake

The Wauconda varsity football team defeated Grayslake 17-14 at a home game Sept. 28.

Wauconda was behind 0-14 in the first quarter, but the team pulled together and played some good football, coach Fred Loffredo said.

All in all, the overall team effort was great, he added.

The next varsity game will be at 8 p.m. Friday, Oct. 4 at Marengo.

Wildcats Look For Breaks

by SUSAN MONTGOMERY

The Mundelein Wildcats will be on the lookout for breaks they might have if they want to beat Libertyville in their next game this week.

"We're going to have to try real hard if we want to beat them," said coach Gary Heifner.

Libertyville, which will celebrate its homecoming this weekend, remains undefeated with a score of 5-0.

"We are capable of upsetting them, but frankly, it will have to be a perfect game. The Mustangs are one of the top teams in the state," Heifner said. "We have to take advantage of any breaks they give us. Their team looks good and is multi-talented."

The Wildcats played a strong offensive game against Lake Forest, beating them 25-0. Mundelein got off to a good start by demonstrating its strength when Mike Lech threw a 71-yard touchdown pass to Jeff Geary.

"That first offensive play gave us a good beginning," Heifner said. "From there, we had a real credit to our defense. The defense held Lake Forest down the whole day."

"I never dreamed we could shut them out," he said.

In the third quarter, Lech returned an interception 20 yards, setting up the play for a 1-yard run to a touchdown.

A two-point conversion when Lech passed to Geary brought the score to 14-0.

The Wildcats put together a tremendous 90-yard drive in 14 plays, which ended with a 1-yard blast when John Carr scored the team's third touchdown. An extra point scored by Bob Peters brought the team to an overall 21-0.

Skyhawks Trying To Rebound After Loss

The Johnsburg Skyhawks, who fell to 1-2 in conference play, will be traveling to Grant Saturday for the Bulldogs' homecoming.

"Anything can happen in that game," said head coach Mike Roberts. "They are a much better ball club than they're playing."

The Skyhawks will be trying to rebound after a 24-0 homecoming loss to the visiting Round Lake Panthers.

"Round Lake is the team to beat in the conference now," said Roberts looking for a much-needed win.

Leading Hilltoppers To Invade Carmel

Preparing for Joliet Catholic any time is a major assignment. And when your football team has dropped four straight like Jim Rejc's Carmel Corsairs, hosting an invasion of the state ranked Hilltoppers is a task calling for the bag of tricks of a magician.

Whether Rejc has some tricks cooked up for the league leading visitors won't be known until 8 p.m. Friday, Oct. 4 when Joliet comes to Mundelein for an East Suburban Catholic Conference football contest.

Uncharacteristically, Joliet Catholic has one loss marring its record while the Corsairs have only their season opening defeat of Waukegan East on the success side of the ledger.

Knocking off the Hilltoppers would constitute one of the state's major upsets of the 1985 season. Realistically, that doesn't seem in the cards.

Rejc will need a supreme effort from his Corsairs, who have a bad case of "second half letdown," just to stay close to the Hilltoppers and silence grumblers in the grandstand.

Last Saturday Carmel was in the running against Marist at halftime, just like the week before against St. Patrick. Then the roof caved in.

Fullback Pete Pasternak and Luke Cosco, a running back who runs straight forward, pounded the Carmel defense to pieces, and paced the Marist Redskins to an easy 22-0 victory.

Whenever Craig Staehle, Carmel's talented linebacker, would shut off Pasternak and Cosco, quarterback Kevin Barry, a talented junior, would roll out for a long gain.

Ashley Boeckholt's punting was one weapon Carmel could have made better use of if the defense had done a better job containing Marist.

One first half bright spot for Carmel was Tim Cullinan's catch of a pass from John Terlap and his sideline sprint deep into Marist territory. Cullinan was hauled down from behind, leaving Marist in command at the half 15-0.

Donell Foster's 35 yard touchdown run averted a shutout as the Carmel sophs suffered their first defeat after four straight wins 13-6.

Bursting Through

Jim DeLeon, 24, will burst through the line on this play to aid his Round Lake Panthers to a 24-0 victory over Johnsburg Sept. 28. Both, Round Lake and Marian are 3-0 in the conference and tied for first.—Photo by Craig Vogel.

North Chicago Loses Another Close One

The North Chicago Warhawk varsity football team will attempt to get itself in the winning column Oct. 5 when Niles North comes to town.

The Warhawks, who are currently 0-5 in the North Suburban Conference, while the Niles North Vikings are tied for third place at 3-2.

The contest will take place at 2 p.m. on the North

Chicago Community High School football field.

The Warhawks are coming off a close 17-14 defeat at the hands of the Stevenson Patriots. Stevenson is also in that four-way tie for third place in the conference.

Against Stevenson, the Warhawks blew a 14-0 half-time lead and lost on the last play of the game.

The Patriot's Jerry Moe connected on a 17-yard field goal to win the game.

The Patriots scored on its first two possessions in the second half to knot the game up at 14. North Chicago scored twice in the second quarter on a two-yard run by Stephen Franklin (kick failed) and an eight-yard pass from quarterback Elmer Smith to Tom Newberry (two-point conversion).

Breaking Away

Sequoits Blast Bison

The Antioch Sequoit varsity football team is on a roll after winning three of its last four games, finding itself in a four-way tie for third place in the tough North Suburban Conference.

The Sequoits will attempt to continue its hot ways when the powerful Zion-Benton ZeeBees come to town Oct. 5.

The shoot-out will take place at 2 p.m. on the Antioch Community High School football field.

The ZeeBees are currently in second place with a 4-1 mark, while the Sequoits (3-2) find themselves in a four-way tie for third place with Niles North, Stevenson and Warren.

"Zion is a very good team. They're very quick and have an excellent running game. In order for us to beat them, we're going to have to keep the ball on offense for a considerable amount of time.

We have to keep their offense off the field," Head Coach Steve Wapon said.

"Our goal against Zion will be to have a balanced offense. We'll have to mix our plays up to keep their defense guessing," he added.

Antioch is coming off an impressive 33-6 victory over the Fenton Bison Sept. 28.

The Sequoits were in total control against the Bison, as they led 27-6 at the half.

Antioch scored first on a two-yard run by Pat Bruks, which was set up by a 25-yard interception by Tom Homan.

The second quarter is when the Sequoits exploded for 20 points to take a commanding halftime lead.

After Fenton scored its only touchdown of the game, tying it at 6-6, Antioch came back with three second quarter touchdowns. It all started with an eight-yard touchdown pass from Mike DoBosh to Don Gunther to make it 14-6. DoBosh then connected with Rob Visce on an eight-yard pass for another touchdown, making it 20-6.

Bruks then came back in the same quarter to score on an eight-yard run to blow the game out of reach.

Bruks scored again in the third quarter on an eight-yard run to make the final score 33-6.

Bruks was the leading rusher for the Sequoits with 72 yards on 17 carries. DoBosh completed 14 of 18 passes for 176 yards and two touchdowns.

"DoBosh played an exceptional game," Wapon said, "We played well as a team, which is what we're going to have to do this weekend to defeat Zion-Benton.

Jaws To Fight For Life

by CHARLENE WHITNEY

The U.S. Department of Agriculture is responsible for enforcing a 1976 amendment to the Animal Welfare Act that prohibits organized dog fights. This department has been working with the Dept. of Justice to set up methods to investigate and prosecute violations.

The dogfighting ban provides for fines up to $5,000 and imprisonment for up to one year or both.

Texas has had the most organized dog fight each year, and Georgia and Florida run a close second.

Pet-Wise

Dog owners do not like to fight animals in the summer because the heat takes too much out of them and decreases the chances for a good performance.

For four to six weeks before the fight, dogs are subjected to a conditioning process known as a keep. Often the American pit bulls are used as they are about as tall as a boxer. They have the strongest jaws of any breed. Even a big dog such as a Doberman wouldn't last five minutes with a good pit bull. A willingness to keep on fighting and even to die for his handler is necessary.

The first step is for a contractual agreement between owners who want to fight their dogs. They must agree to a stake bet, a date and time, the sex and weight of the dogs to fight.

On the day of the fight, the dogs are led to the unpublicized fight site. The owners will wash one another's dogs to make sure the coats haven't been treated with chemicals that would sicken the other dog. It is not unusual for the owner to pull up some skin of the dog and taste it for chemicals that may have been used.

Each owner then takes his dog and brings it to the pit. This is usually a carpeted area 20 ft. square with walls three feet high.

Each owner takes his dog between his legs facing the opposite corners of the pit. When the referee calls to face the dogs, the opponents then see each other for the first time. They are set free to charge one another and do so with great force. The fight may only last a few minutes or it could go on for several hours. Each dog has his mouth full of the other dog and the crowd is wildly making side bets and drinking. The blood flows freely from both dogs as each one tries with every ounce of strength to kill the other.

If a dog shows signs of cowardice such as a whine, the dogs are separated. A piece of wood known as a "breaking stick" is used to gain leverage to pry the jaws of one dog from the flesh of the other. The cowardly dog is given ten seconds to scratch. This means that he must cross the pit and immediately attack the other dog that is being held by its owner. The fight continues until one dog can't or won't scratch.

Many, many dogs die from the fighting, but not always in the pit. Some die several days after the fight from injuries, shock or dehydration. The owners fight dehydrated dogs because they bleed less.

There have been times when an owner has shot a cowardly dog at the fight scene, but if the dog has won before or did a good showing, the owner might nurse him back to health to fight again.

If a dog wins three fights, it is a champion and brings up to $750 in stud fees. If it wins five fights it is a grand champion, and stud fees go to four times more.

In the half dozen states that have enacted felony laws against dog fighting, the sport has diminished greatly or disappeared altogether.

Using an animal in this way is a form of cruelty and against the law. Beware of people wanting to buy dogs for such motives. Hopefully dogfighting will be completely outlawed very soon.

Antioch Wallcovering Plans Wallpaper Clinic

Antioch Wallcovering is a unique in-stock wallcovering store, said owner Linda Lange. She pointed out that Antioch Wallcovering offers many services to customers.

One of those unique services will be a wallpaper clinic at 7 p.m. on Thursday, Oct. 17 at the store on Rte. 59 just south of Rte. 173.

We'll teach you everything you wanted to know about hanging but were afraid to ask.

A special rack with two-for-one sale is being offered at that time; purchase one at the regular price and get one free.

In addition, Antioch Wallcovering has many new grass cloth patterns at 50 percent off, now in stock. The store also has border and murals in stock. A lot of new textures and foils at low, low prices. Imperial Wallcovering is carried in stock at 25 percent off.

Dave McCleary, a Wallmates sales representative, will be on hand to teach participants everything they ever wanted to know about hanging wallpaper.

Lange pointed out that the store sponsors about four or five clinics a year so that customers can be knowledgeable when they hang wallpaper.

"Of course, if you don't want to do the work yourself, we have a professional hanging and painting service," she said.

In addition to looking around the store, customers also may check out a sample book and rolls of wallcovering to take home.

"It helps to visualize what a room will look like if you can hold a large sample," Lange said.

"We've added a paint department and a window treatment department. We keep growing to service our customers' need. Let us help you with all your decorating needs," she said.

For reservations for the auction and clinic or for more information, call (312) 395-7670.

energy-saving, include storm doors, storm windows, mirror walls, shower doors, table tops and thermal windows.

"A lot of people don't know how diversified we are," Moultron said.

Moultron said sales of particular products sell at certain times of the year—about this time people are starting to purchase the storm windows and doors to save in upcoming heating costs. And before Christmas, people start buying mirror walls and shower doors as gifts, Moultron said.

The company has five employees and, if requested, they will install the glass products for their customers. They also take on jobs at commercial sites, such as putting up the large windows in store fronts.

If you've got your hands full raising a family, or holding down a job outside the home, or both, you're too busy to go marching three times a day.

Yet that's what you do if you have a poorly laid-out kitchen. Every time you cook or clean up after meals you take extra steps: to the sink, to the refrigerator, to the range. In effect, you march all around your kitchen, wasting time and tiring yourself.

The answer for you might be an island—not a desert island—but one strategically located in the center of your kitchen. It shortens the distance between work stations.

How it does that was demonstrated by the interior designers at Armstrong in their remodeling of an old, inefficient kitchen: First, they knocked out the wall between the kitchen and family room to create a more spacious setting and end the isolation of someone working in the kitchen (That can give the chef a real psychological boost).

A mini-greenhouse constructed of plywood and Plexiglas conceals a load-bearing beam where the wall was. Additionally, the greenhouse provides fresh herbs to the cook, flowers to the rest of the house and a focal point for the kitchen and family room.

Another practical addition was a desk which is really nothing more than a filing cabinet with a board for a top. It doubles as snack bar and game table. Located between the kitchen and family room, it serves to divide and define the two areas.

Abrasives Eat Away At Finish

by SUSAN MONTGOMERY

All that extra elbow grease it used to take to clean and scour a tub may be a thing of the past.

According to David Schneider, owner of Schneider's Bath Genie in Highland Park, harsh abrasive and powders often eat away at the finish of a tub's surface. Instead, he recommends using the newer non-abrasive cleansing products on the market to clean ceramic and porcelain surfaces.

Although Schneider said his work also includes sinks and tiles, most of his work is in refinishing worn down porcelain tubs.

"We can resurface a tub in about four to five hours for a fraction of what it would cost to replace a tub," he said.

While most new tubs today cost anywhere between $1,500 to $2,000, Schneider charges from $230 to $240 to refinish a tub. All of his work is guaranteed for one year.

When a tub has been refinished, clients should wait two days before using it, he said. "It takes about 30 days for the surface to harden to its original condition," he added.

At a time when rehabbing older homes has become commonplace, repairing old tubs or cracked sinks are a usual request. Another frequent request Schneider receives is to change the color of a tub.

"Often, the clients will be changing the decorating scheme in a bathroom and want the bathtub to fit right in with the colors," he said. "One woman brought in a peach-colored flower and wanted her bathtub to be the same color."

Changing a color requires stripping off the old surface before a new finish can be applied. Schneider uses a longlasting synthetic porcelain finish.

"The recipe for this is a highly guarded secret that is used only throughout the different Bath Genie franchise stores nationwide," he said.

Using the synthetic porcelain in a few of his own creative ventures, Schneider said he is currently working on a project where he will apply several shades of blue to a tub to create a waterfall effect.

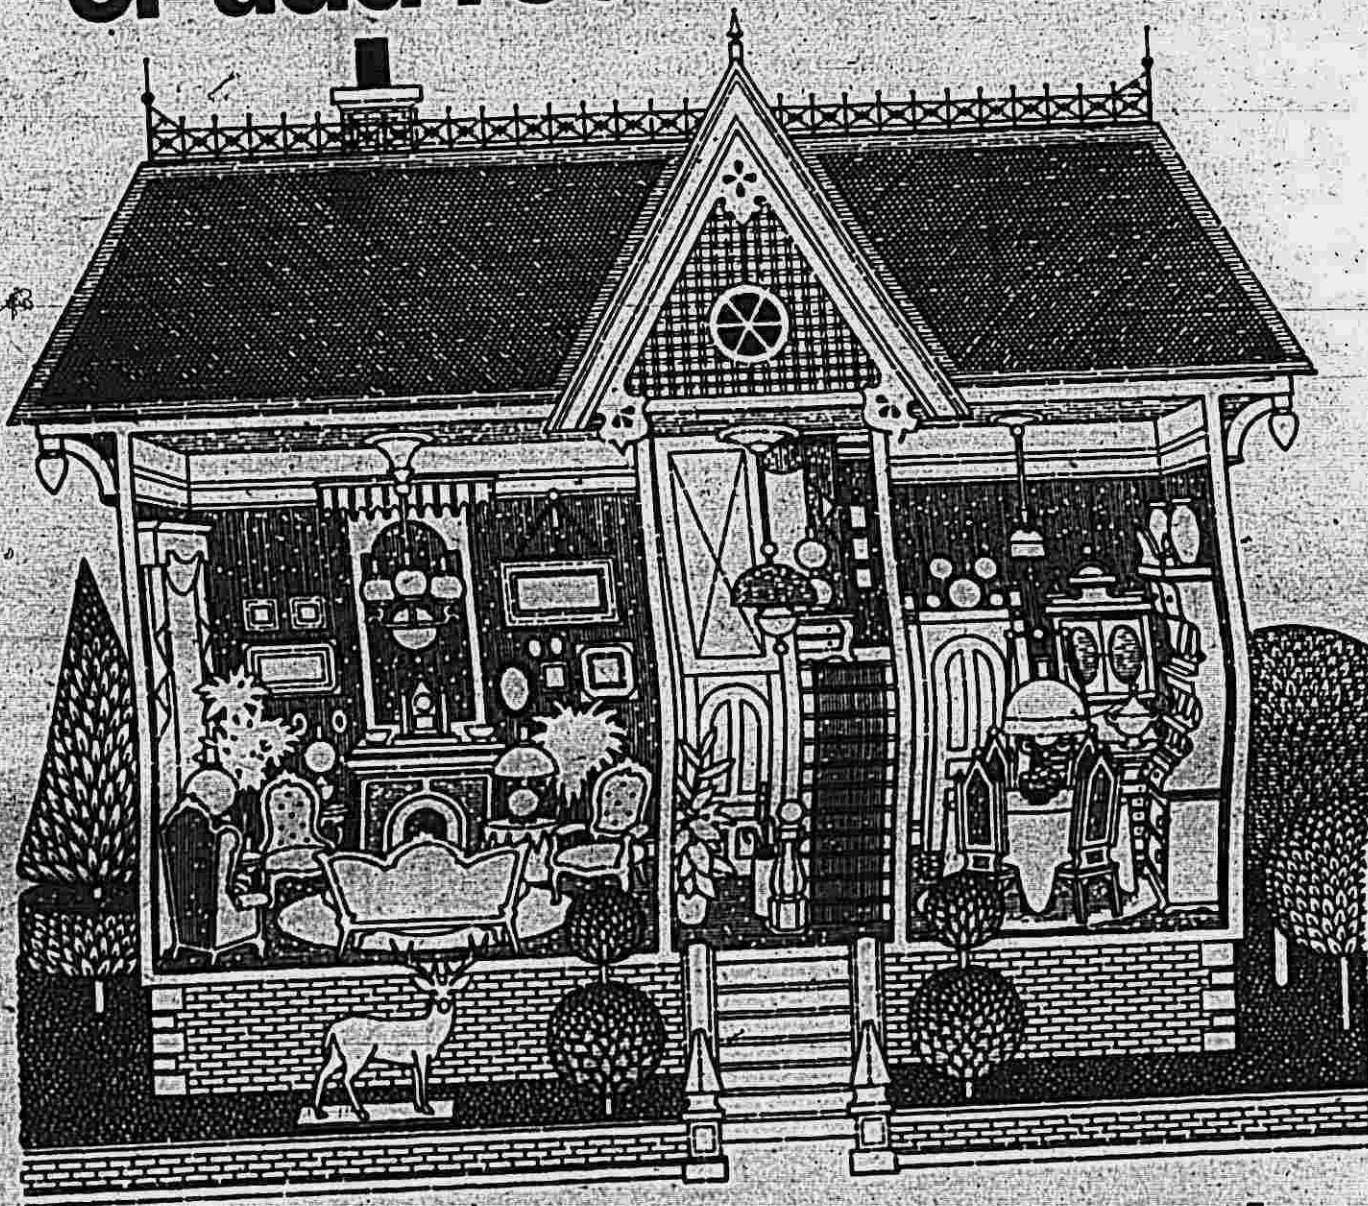

"I have a tub that I experiment with. I like to try out my ideas and then I take the same tub and start all over again," he said.

Caution Advised When Hiring Home Inspector

by GARY S. MEYERS

Buying the American Dream—a cozy home in the city or suburbs—can turn into a nightmare if an unsuspecting house hunter purchases blind without the aid of a professional inspector.

Take the family who purchased a four-bedroom frame house on Chicago's South Side. Soon after closing, the basement flooded and the cash-strapped family had to spend $7,000 to repair a broken furnace, sagging bedroom and kitchen floors, and a leaky roof.

"A house is the largest single investment people make in a lifetime, yet thousands buy on a whim, like picking out a new toaster," said house detective J.S. James, president of the American Building Inspection Service.

"What first appears to be a bargain home may turn out to be a can of worms filled with defects and costly necessary repairs. If you have doubts about the wiring, plumbing, or heating plant, ask the owner if you can have it checked by an expert," James advised.

Real estate brokers and lenders recommend home buyers hire an independent professional third party to inspect the property for major structural defects.

The minimum fee is one-tenth of one percent of the property's value. On a $125,000 house it would be $125. Depending on travel time and thoroughness involved, home inspections can run as much as $250.

Despite the relatively low cost, experts told The Meyers Report many home buyers do not bother with professional home inspection for the following reasons:

- Lack of time - When mortgage rates are low, good houses are snapped up within days. Buyers often are forced to get in their bid right away, and brokers often pressure people into quick decisions.

- Ignorance - The average home buyer can judge only what he or she sees. But the most necessary repairs usually are not obvious. And, most structural or mechanical defects cost more than $1,000 to fix.

"It's a good idea for a buyer to get an inspection first, then make an offer based on the findings of the house detective's report," said Alana Golubic, a wisened realtor. "A competent house inspector can uncover defects that will help you negotiate a lower price."

But, if mortgage rates are low and the market is hot, don't put off making a bid on a desirable house until after an inspection. They Meyers Report advises. The delay could give another buyer a chance to walk off with your dream home.

"The alternative is to make a bid on the house and place a deposit (usually $1,000), then stipulate in the sales contract that the offer is conditional, subject to an inspection by your home inspector," said Chicago real estate lawyer Marshall J. Moltz.

"The bid takes the house off the market for a few days and while the inspection proceeds and the buyer can operate without worry that other potential buyers will make counter offers," Moltz said.

If the inspector is competent, chances are good that he or she will find major defects in the house. The American Society of Home Inspectors reports that 42 percent of the houses its members inspect have major defects. The most frequent defects involve leaky roofing, heating problems and wet basements.

But before a home buyer can uncover those defects, he must find a competent (Continued on Page 7)

Service Stands By Quality

by SUSAN MONTGOMERY

"Unique" is the word Louise Skinner uses to describe her home maintenance and cleaning service. The founder and owner of Quala Care Services in Lake Bluff, Skinner said her work includes the usual household tasks of carpet cleaning, waxing floors and "all 'round scrubbing" to consultation work in some 40-room mansions on the North Shore.

A registered nurse, the Georgia native moved to Chicago six years ago with her husband. Skinner, who enjoys "helping other people," decided to start her own home maintenance service.

Today, Quala Care Services has a staff of 20 employees who are trained to perform a variety of household jobs.

"With so many two career families today, people want to have someone help clean and maintain their homes so that they have the time to do the things they want to do," she said.

One of the services the firm offers is a carpet cleaning system which enables homeowners to walk on the carpet immediately after it has been cleaned. A non-toxic chemical compound is applied to the carpet and then vacuumed up.

"You don't end up saturating your carpet with liquid detergents and then having to worry a wet padding or possible dry rot," Skinner said. "Also, the compound is completely safe for families with small children or pets."

On most assignments, a team of two employees are sent to a home. One job usually takes about two and a half hours, and if owners are not satisfied with the work, the firm will redo the job at no extra charge.

Among the more unusual requests, Skinner said she has been asked to develop a program analysis for household staffs on large estates in Lake Forest.

"Some of the households have a staff of five persons. I go in and set up a card catalogue with a list of jobs that can be done each day and give them an idea of how much time each should take. We like to have feedback from the clients on how a program is working," she said.

While much of their work is working with private homeowners, Skinner said a large number of clients includes commercial businesses and professional offices.

The costs for cleaning a professional office, with an average of 40,000 square feet, start at $30 a week. Prices for residential cleaning run higher, beginning at $68 for two and a half hours. Estimates, which are on the basis of the number of rooms, are also given over phone.

Breathe Easier

For millions of Americans, breathing is a relentless chore. The air we breathe is often the trigger for an asthma attack. In the home we are constantly surrounded by formaldehyde from building materials. In the workplace grain dust and materials used to make plastics are among substances that cause what doctors label "occupational asthma." Another problem is allergies, which occur when a person is exposed to airborne substances such as pollen, dust or mold. The best way to control air purity inside is with an air filtration system for the home, which can effectively eliminate dust, pollen, smoke, odors and other viral contaminants from indoor air, and make breathing easier and safer. The new systems are more efficient than the old and require little maintenance.

Home Inspection

house detective and check the company's reputation and abilities first.

The Meyers Report suggests home buyers ask the following questions before hiring a home inspector:

- How long has the company been doing home inspections?

- Does the firm have sufficient credentials, experience and real estate knowledge? Ask for referrals from previous customers.

- Is the company a member of a professional association, such as the American Society of Home Inspectors, or affiliated with a local real estate board?

- Does inspector guarantee prompt service and provide a written report outlining defects and necessary repairs? Are photographs included in the report?

- Will the inspector check inside, outside and underneath the house? Does he test the furnace and other major mechanical systems?

- Will the company pay for the repair of a defect that was overlooked during the inspection?

Beware of inspection services that offer to repair property defects. That's an obvious conflict of interest.

With mortgage rates at the lowest level in five years, house hunters this fall are feeling pressured to make speedy homebuying decisions.

But no matter how long you've hunted for a home, never buy without hiring a professional inspector to check the property for defects. The Meyers Report advises.

A nationwide study by the American Society of Home Inspectors indicates there's a 42 percent chance that the house you buy today will have structural and mechanical defects.

And, not all the defects are found in older houses. The rising costs of materials and labor has led to frequent cases of poor construction quality and workmanship in new houses, real estate experts say.

"A family's life savings may be gobbled up by unanticipated home repair costs if a home is purchased without an inspection," warns J.S. James, president of American Building Inspection Service in Chicago.

"Smart consumers call in a professional home inspector for a thorough and impartial evaluation of the condition of the house before making the final decisions," James said.

Even before a professional inspection, the American Society of Home Inspectors recommends buyers check out the house before they fall in love with it.

Aluminum, Wise Move

When the time comes to retire your old windows, you should consider replacing them with aluminum-framed replacements. Here's why:

- Precision-formed and fabricated to fit tightly, aluminum windows have low air-leakage rates.

- Aluminum retains its tight-fitting shape, never swelling, shrinking, warping or rotting.

- Low-maintenance aluminum never requires painting.

- Factory-applied finishes are durable and come in many popular colors.

If your present windows are in good shape, the addition of aluminum storm windows may help you keep your energy bills in check this winter.

Reroofing

When the time comes to reroof, it has to be done right away. Otherwise, leaks may develop that could damage the deck, rafters, walls and furnishings.

Bartnick Expands Firm

"We fully expect the housing business to improve," Brian and Robin Bartnick told Lakeland Newspapers Friday. "Interest rates are going down, real estate is selling well, and a lot of people, particularly older persons, have lots purchased and are ready to build their vacation or retirement home."

"That is why we have purchased a Tri State Home franchise dealership. We have worked closely with contractors for many years, and now Tri State Homes is just an extension of our sewer, septic and excavating business. We are very proud to be involved this way."

Bartnick Construction will operate from our office in Island Lake as we are serving Lake, McHenry, Cook and surrounding counties," Brian Bartnick explained. "Tri State Homes has been in business 15 years, and is headquartered in Mercer, Wis."

"The business activity at the present time is encouraging, and we will be part of it. It doesn't take long for us to put together a package for a customer, to have a custom-built home, and to erect it. Single family homes is the main product, but Tri State Homes has the capacity and capability for multi-family construction, as well as motels and condominiums."

"We will provide a customer with anything they want, from a shell to a completely finished home. They are built piece by piece in a controlled environment, and can be erected 12 months a year with proper site preparation," Brian commented.

Brian and Robin Bartnick have been in the sewer, septic and excavating business about eight years, working in Lake County and all the surrounding counties on individual, commercial and government projects.

The office is located in Island Lake and the phone number is (312) 526-3260.

Grayslake Feed Sales Helps Homeowners

Grayslake Feed Sales, located at 81 E. Belvidere Rd. in Grayslake, carries a full line of equipment for the homeowner who wants to keep his property looking good.

"Of course, with the fall season, we spend most of our time selling and servicing chainsaws," says owner Rich DeMeyer.

Over the years, Grayslake Feed Sales has become one of the most complete chainsaw service outlets in Northern Illinois. They are the only shop that can rebuild chainsaw bars. DeMeyer points out that this costs his customers about half of what a new bar would.

Although they sell only Husqvarna saws, they also service Homelites and Echos. "We are the largest Husqvarna dealer in Illinois," DeMeyer notes, "and because of this we are able to offer the lowest price for the highest quality saw on the market."

Grayslake Feed decided to exclusively feature Husqvarna because of the quality of the saws. Recognized as a leader in safety features, Husqvarna uses the same quality components in all of its saws - from smallest to largest.

"Something we do that you won't see very often," says DeMeyer, "is to have a large woodpile in back of the shop for the purpose of conducting demonstrations. It is important for people to know that what they are buying will do the job for them. We encourage our customers to take the saw they want out back and work with it before they buy. That way they can feel the quality and buy with the comfort of knowing that these saws will do the job for them."

With winter looming ahead, DeMeyer also points out that they have leafblowers and snowblowers in stock right now.

"We specialize in outdoor power equipment. When people buy from us, not only do they get the best equipment at the most reasonable price; they also get quick, efficient attention when something needs fixing. A dedicated service department is something you can not get just anywhere," DeMeyer concluded.

Range Hoods

You want to keep your kitchen cabinets and other surfaces free of grease and grime. The most effective way to do this is by using a range hood installed directly over the range. A range hood captures contaminants as they rise during cooking, before they can settle on kitchen surfaces. There are two types of range hoods: ducted, which is extremely effective because it exhausts all contaminants to the outside of the home through ductwork; and duct-free, which uses a filter to rid the kitchen air of solid particles such as grease.

Out With Metal Faucets

Today's homeowner knows that a faucet with a tough plastic waterway and housing is a terrific alternative to the traditional metal faucet. Plastic doesn't lime-up or corrode, and it's less expensive than a metal faucet. It's not hard to keep plastics looking as shiny as metal, either. One manufacturer of plastic faucets, NIBCO INC. has a no-drip washerless design that's easy to clean. These plastic faucets require only mild soap and water to keep them looking good and working like a charm.

Koeune's Flower Farm, located on Rte. 45, three-fourths-of-a-mile from Rte. 173, outside of Antioch, is the product of generations of one family's devotion to green living things.

Owned and operated by Eugene Nicholas Koeune III and his son Gene, the Flower Farm, offers quality green and blooming plants, trees and shrubs at reasonable prices.

The Koeunes come by their green thumbs hereditarily since the grandparents on both sides operated greenhouses in the Chicago area for years.

Koeune's has been in the Antioch area since 1972.

Besides offering quality at the retail level, the Flower Farm also deals in wholesale plants.

"We are here to help our customers choose the best plants for their needs and to answer all their questions," said Gene Koeune.

In the spring the big feature at the "Farm" is potted plants, bulbs and vegetables, but the nursery is in operation year round.

For those who love the Christmas Holiday and are especially into red, Koeune's will be holding an open house on Nov. 30 and Dec. 1, featuring the glorious sight of 1,400 blooming poinsettias, all for sale.

Area Concepts Is More Than Just A Sign

The concept behind Area Concepts is hard work, and that hard work is paying off after only eight months for the Round Lake area-based real estate firm.

"We have a commitment to the Round Lake area before all else," Pat Simoncelli, broker and president, said. That commitment is paying off. I'm actually a bit surprised at our initial success, which I can only attribute to the generosity of the community."

A hard-working professional staff, which Simoncelli says is his greatest asset, has produced satisfied customers and a lot of sales.

"We emphasize service. Our staff is made up of local residents and they all have an interest in the community. We know the market, property values and the advantages of this area. Our goal is to do a thorough job with each step of the buying or selling process," Simoncelli said.

After numerous years in the real estate business in the Palatine area, Simoncelli chose to locate in the Round Lake area, "because this is a prospering area. We wanted to get in on the ground floor of a growing community."

Simoncelli and his staff share an interest in the community. Since relocating in Round Lake Beach from Palatine, he has been appointed to the Round Lake Beach Planning Commission and is on the board of directors of the Round Lake Area Chamber of Commerce. He is also an active member of the Lake County Board of Realtors.

"The housing here is affordable," Simoncelli added. "We're also dealing with a lot of first time buyers and sellers. Most sellers should consult a local realtor when thinking of selling their home. We know the market and most home buyers usually go to the area which they desire.

Most people don't realize what a variety of services a real estate office can offer, Simoncelli said. "People who are just remotely considering the idea of buying a home should consult a local realtor who can provide them with the information they may need on the market and financing, for example."

His office isn't just limited to buying and selling homes. "Many people with moderate incomes don't understand the potential benefits of investing in real estate. We can guide them in that area."

Simoncelli is assisted by broker Kathleen Atkins and associates, Diane Roland, Jim Gordon and Ken Krueger, who have a combined 35 years of real estate experience. New salespeople, "who have proved themselves already," Simoncelli said, include Tim Kolodziejczak, Jim Simoncelli, Rick Mulder and Renee Patrick.

An agent is always available at the office, which is open seven days a week. Simoncelli is pleased with his office location on Rollins Rd., just west of Cedar Lake. "It's a highly visible location and an attractive, professional office. We believe real estate salespeople are professionals and this community deserves professional service."

Area Concept's motto is, "we're more than just a sign in your yard."

"That's the bottom line," Simoncelli said. "We believe our job is educating the public and providing good and thorough service, so that buying or selling property doesn't have to be a frightening experience."

Governor Signs Tax Relief Bill

Utility consumers will see an immediate change for the better in their utility bills after Jan. 1, 1986 under a bill sponsored by State Representative Tom Homer, D-Canton, that was signed into law by the Governor.

House Bill 18 caps utility taxes by changing the method of taxing electricity and natural gas from the current 5 percent gross receipts tax to the lower of a flat per-unit tax based on usage or the 5 percent gross receipts tax. This will save consumers an estimated $225 million in taxes over the next five years, Homer said.

Homer credited support from Illinois House Speaker Michael J. Madigan for helping get the bill through the General Assembly. "With Speaker Madigan's backing, we were able to gather overwhelming support from both Republicans and Democrats in the House and Senate to pass the bill and send it to Governor Thompson for his signature."

Homer noted that Thompson had opposed the bill during the legislative session because it cut future state tax revenues.

For most homeowners in Illinois, the bill will mean an immediate tax savings where the 5 percent gross receipts tax exceeds the new unit tax. The bill also contains a "hold harmless" provision for industries and businesses which have lower utility rates and thus lower taxes. They would continue to be taxed at the lower 5 percent rate.

Bell Offers Discount

Throughout the month of October, Illinois Bell is reducing the initial fee it charges for custom calling services like call waiting and three-way calling from $20 to $15.

"We hope the price reduction will be an incentive for the many people who have expressed an interest in the services, but haven't gotten around to picking up the phone and ordering them," said Illinois Bell Community Relations

Manager Richard Miller.

The fee will return to $20 on Nov. 1.

The company's most popular feature in its family of convenience calling services is call waiting, which lets the person answer a second call when they're on the phone with someone else. It costs $3 a month.

Other services include three-way calling, which lets the person add a third party to a conversation; call forwarding, which automatically transfers incoming calls to another number when it is so desired; and speed calling, which lets the person make calls simply by dialing a one- or two-digit code. These cost $2.50 a month each; package rates for all the services are available.

To find out in which areas custom calling is available and to order any of the services, call Illinois Bell at (1-800) 428-2111.

The Round Lake Area, What Potential!

by MIKE PRAMSHAFFER

The Greater Round Lake area is striving for success in its efforts to bring economic growth and development to its communities.

The area has planted many seeds for thought among its citizens and it could blossom into one of the most dynamic areas in Western Lake County.

The major issue on the burner is the consolidation of the four Round Lake area villages: Round Lake, Round Lake Beach, Round Lake Heights and Round Lake Park.

The voters will decide whether they want to consolidate on Nov. 5. If it passes, the new City of Round Lake will be the fourth largest municipality in the entire Lake County area.

Also on the ballot in November is the Round Lake Area Library referendum and the annexation of the Baxter Labs by the Round Lake Area Park Dist.

If the library referendum passes, its new building will be located next to the park district's new facility at the beautiful Hart's Rd. and Rte. 134 location.

In continuing its efforts to eliminate the sour reputation it has among Lake County residents, the four Round Lake villages received a combined one million dollars through Governor James Thompson's Build Illinois program.

The formation of the Westlake Economic Development Corporation has also been very beneficial to the Round Lake area.

The corporation has many bullets in its gun ready to have the trigger pulled.

Round Lake Area Chamber of Commerce and Industry President Joan Seminary believes the Round Lake area has many things to offer that other Lake County municipalities don't.

"Round Lake is a great place to live because we have the advantages of city living with the comforts of country living. We have one of the best school districts in Lake County and a very good park district program," Seminary said.

It is the belief of many that Round Lake's major strength is its school district.

"Our school district is definitely a major plus. There aren't too many school districts in Lake County that can compare with ours.

Community Profile

I've compared ours with some of the other school districts in the county and I think ours has one of the best programs," Pat Simoncelli, broker and president of Area Concepts said.

According to School Dist. 116 Supt. Clifton Houghton, "Our school district must educate nearly 5200 students on a tax base that is the lowest per pupil assessed value in Lake County."

"Round Lake is definitely on the upswing right now. We have a lot of commercial industry looking at our area and a lot of people moving in," Seminary said.

"Round Lake is a strong community with so much potential. People are staying here because they are aware of that potential," Simoncelli said.

With three major issues on the ballot in November (consolidation, library referendum and the Baxter Labs annexation), the voters will decide the future of the Round Lake area. It could be a force to be reckoned with.

Housing Maintains Pace

Housing activity in Lake County maintains its record pace through August according to Dorothy Fetting, president-elect of the 1500 member Lake County Board of Realtors headquartered in Lake Villa.

The average sales price of 1,535 residential properties sold between Jan. 1 and Aug. 31 was $77,836 or $5,017 more than the average sale price of 1,001 residential properties which sold during the same period last year. What's significant about these numbers, according to Fetting, other than the almost 7.5 percent appreciation in home values, is the increase of over 50 percent in the number of sold properties processed through Multiple Listing.

The selected areas noted, report the following average sales price: Libertyville, $125,536; Fox Lake, $42,735; Gurnee, $78,623 and Grayslake, $68,308. Fetting noted that the wide range of inventory maintained by the Multiple Listing Service enables Realtors to place families of almost any income level into a home of their own.

Presently 4,403 properties are for sale with MLS and can be inspected by stopping at any MLS participant firm.

This coincides with the national outlook, as Fetting noted that the Commerce Department recently reported an August increase of 6.2 percent in the seasonally adjusted annual rate of housing starts to 1,749 million from 1,647 million rate in July. August rate was 10 percent above August 1984 pace. Increase from July to August was the result primarily of a jump in rates of starts in buildings with two or more units. Starts of units in buildings with two to four units were up 36.4 percent, and in buildings with five or more units, starts were up 12.4 percent. Starts of single-family homes increase 1 percent to 1,073 million. Building permits in August were up 4 percent from July at the seasonally adjusted annual rate of 1,754 million units.

To Honor Business Women

Outstanding Lake County women business and civic leaders who have made significant contributions to the progress of their companies and communities will be honored at the YWCA of Lake County's seventh annual Women of Achievement Dinner Oct. 9 at Marriott's Lincolnshire Resort in Lincolnshire.

Billed as a "Roll Call of Success," this year's program, as those in previous years, is designed to provide businesses, organizations and individuals the opportunity to pay tribute to the outstanding women who surround them every day.

The women honored at this annual event not only have demonstrated leadership and strong character both in their personal and professional lives, but also have made it easier for all

Sales Climb

Sales of existing homes climbed to their highest level in almost six years in August, as declining interest rates and stable home prices continued to lure buyers.

Sales of previously owned single-family homes soared by 9.2 percent in August to a new annual national rate of 3.43 million units. This was the fastest sales pace since a rate of 3.48 million units in November, 1979.

"Clearly, the demand for housing remains strong and today's lower interest rates are allowing an increasing number of families to realize the American dream of home ownership," said Dorothy Fetting, president-elect of the Lake County Board of Realtors.

Fetting said a drop in mortgage rates of about 1.5 percent points in the past year and moderate price increases had combined to make housing affordable once again for many families in Lake County.

The average price of a home declined in August, falling $223 to $77,836.

women to pursue their career goals.

Noted television and radio personality Merri Dee will be the featured speaker at this year's dinner and awards presentation. An announcer for WGN radio and television, Dee has received numerous awards for her business and philanthropic contributions including "Communicator of the Year" from the American Cancer Society and "Woman of the Year" from the Chicago Churches Women's Federation.

Proceeds from the dinner will support the YWCA's Women's Re-Entry program, which provides counseling and job placement referral to women re-entering the workforce, and the YWCA's Key Kids Program, which offers working parents low-cost and quality child care after school and during vacation periods. Both programs are designed to make it easier for women in business to be successful in their careers.

Companies that participate in the program will draw public attention to the high caliber and important contributions of their women employees, along with providing essential financial assistance for the YWCA's programs and services.

To participate in the program, companies can honor their outstanding women by sponsoring their attendance. Every woman who is sponsored will receive a certificate recognizing her valuable contribution to her field of endeavor.

Employers also can nominate outstanding female employees for the Outstanding Achievement Award that each year are presented to a small number of women who have distinguished themselves as truly outstanding.

The annual event will kick off with a reception at 6:30 p.m. at Marriott's Lincolnshire Resort and will be immediately followed by dinner and the awards presentation at 7:30 p.m. in the resort's Grand Ballroom.

Persons interested in attending the dinner or nominating women for the Women of Achievement awards should call the YWCA of Lake County at (312) 662-4247. Nominations should be made by Sept. 9.

NEXT WEEK'S HOROSCOPE
BY SALOME

Aries (Mar. 21-Apr. 19) Aries Lambs can say bah to the blahs. Romantic aspects improve. Note: Play Cupid's game by the rules. Cutting corners cuts your chances for winning.

Taurus (Apr. 20-May 20) Energy levels fluctuate. There's a chance you're spending too much time on non-productive matters which make you both anxious and tired. Switch to other projects.

Gemini (May 21-June 20) This is an excellent time for reordering your priorities. Trade in old habits for a fresh approach to the way you need to get things done. Changes are favored.

Cancer (June 21-Jul. 22) Lunar aspects seem confusing. But they're really guides to help you see that what you thought were totally positive goals have negative aspects that need to be examined.

Leo (Jul. 23-Aug. 22) Leos who usually prefer dealing with familiar aspects suddenly confront unexpected situations. Crafty cats will put these new experiences to work for future success.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Your romantic partner is not a mind reader. Show the true depth of your feelings. Remember: your relationship is nourished on continued outpourings of affection.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 22) You soon have a chance to play an important role in a real-life drama. Your performance could earn you lots of well-deserved encores. Get ready for your cue.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) Continue to extend yourself and you'll continue to make contact with the people you really want to be part of your life. Positive aspects dominate your sign.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) Business problems ease up. Black ink replaces red on your ledger sheets. Good news on personal matters too. Old tiffs are forgotten as new links are forged.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) You're going to be called onto "stretch" your talents. Once you answer the call, you'll find you're really capable of doing much more than you thought.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) Expect to have to give a little more than you usually do to accomplish what you usually achieve. But in the long run, the extra efforts pay off in important ways.

Pisces (Feb. 19-Mar. 20) You may have to swim against the tide for a while, but it's worth the effort. Your sense of self-confidence grows. You also make an old admirer take a long new look.

Your Social Security Card Good Identifier

Your Social Security

by Mark Lemmer

Regarding any Social Security question, contact the Waukegan office, 1 N. Genesee St., or call (312) 244-5050.

Despite the widespread use of the Social Security number for identification purposes, there is no intention of making it a national identifier, as some have suggested. Neither does its use outside the Social Security program represent a threat to the confidentiality of Social Security records, as others have speculated.

Use of the Social Security number is largely a matter of convenience in a society in which just about everybody has one. The main use for the number is to record Social Security covered earnings and to control subsequent benefit payments.

The Social Security Administration has assigned about 295 million 9-digit numbers since 1936. Because no restriction was placed on the use of the number by private organizations, it has been adopted as a readily available identifier for a broad spectrum of uses.

Many federal agencies also use the number. The food stamp and the aid to families with dependent children (AFDC) programs require each member of the family to have a Social Security number. The Internal Revenue Service mandates use of the number as the individual taxpayer identification number for all tax returns and for records of income-producing activities, such as bank accounts or investments. The Department of Defense uses the Social Security number for identification purposes for military personnel.

The information in the Social Security record the number identifies is confidential. When the law specifically authorizes the on to do so, it may release the Social Security number to specified government agencies. When there is no law authorizing such disclosure, information from Social Security records can be released only with the written consent of the number holder.

The growing illegal and fraudulent use of the Social Security number resulted in changes concerning its issuance. Since 1978, all applicants for Social Security numbers have been required to present documentary evidence of age, identity, and U.S. citizenship or lawful alien status when they apply for a number. As a result of a 1983 change in the law, new cards are now printed on counterfeit-resistance banknote paper.

People who lose their Social Security card should apply for a duplicate as soon as possible. Many employers are reluctant to hire a person who attempts to provide a Social Security number from memory.
